Belinda, my heart is broken for the totally too soon loss of you and and the heartache for your family remaining. We did not get to see one another too much but when we did, it was like no time had passed. I do so remember though our times growing up and going to the lake in your Papa's pontoon or swimming at GreenBo Lake. Your smile and laugh was infectious and your personality lit up the room. May you and your family be provided love and support through our Father who always grants love and mercy. I love and will miss you cousin. Jim Harrah (Son of Marie French Harrah Honocker).
