

Benson Ruly Duncan Jr.

January 24, 1937 - August 3, 2024

Benson Ruly Duncan Jr., 87 of Flatwoods, Ky went to be with the Lord on Saturday, August 3, 2024, at Community Hospice in Ashland.

Mr. Duncan was born January 24, 1937, in Leavenworth, KS, a son of the late Benson Ruly Duncan Sr. and Irene Cox Duncan. Along with his parents Mr. Duncan is preceded in death by his four siblings, Anna Katherine Love, Virginia Riddle, George Duncan and Walter "Sid" Duncan.

Benson retired from CSX as an engineer after 38 years of service and was a union member of The Brotherhood Locomotive Engineers and Trainmen. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Raceland and a devout Christian. He was a devoted husband for 61 years to his beloved wife Linda. He adored his children, 2 grandchildren, and his great grandson Mason. He enjoyed time spent with his only remaining sibling Peggy. He loved farming, working on antique tractors, and mostly the Lord and his family.

Mr. Duncan is survived by his loving wife, Linda Joyce Duncan; his two children, Deborah Lynn Young and her husband Darrell Lee Young Jr., David Benson Duncan; two grandchildren, Brandon David Mullins and Andrew Duncan Mullins; one great grandchild, Mason Duncan Mullins; one sister, Peggy Lou Shrewsberry and his church family at Raceland First Baptist Church.

A graveside service for Benson Duncan Jr. will be held Wednesday, August 7, 2024, at 1pm at Bellefonte Memorial Gardens in Russell, KY with Rev. Charles Wayne Blevins officiating. Please meet at the cemetery for the service.

Arrangements entrusted to Evans Funeral Home.
