“ Lester was my first friend in Kentucky, and we ended up being good friends. He wanted to be my son in law, but my daughter already had a boyfriend, so we would tease him and make him blush when he'd come over. We hung out and did a lot of fun things. I always stopped in to visit when I'd come back to Kentucky. He will be remembered by me forever, and I know he's with a bunch of other great people. Love Always xoxo
