“ The first day I met him i was training him at Oakmont. We were getting a room set up for a new resident and I told him we needed to label the supplies with the room number. He thought he was so funny writing the room number on every single denture tablet. Haha.. Our relationship just grew from there. I fell for him hard. His sense of humor, his heart, his love of helping people. He was the whole package. He loved me and my kids so much and we loved him. He treated my kids like they were his own. He made me the happiest I'd ever been. He opened our kids eyes to the world. We traveled to new places each year and he enjoyed the family time. Those are memories we will always cherish. Even after broke up, we stayed in contact and talked daily. He helped me in more ways than I could ever even say. I loved him with everything in me and I always will. I just hope he knew that. Til I see you again Raymond. I love you!!
