“ Rick, you were a great neighbor and you were very good to me. Lady and Bandit are being cared for and loved. I miss you like crazy. There's days I look out back and want to talk to you. Tom found an apartment and everyone is surviving the best way we know how in this messed up world. I met your daughter. I love that girl. She's a great person. Thank you for always being there and caring. I don't know how to make it some days with you gone. It makes me very sad that you're not around. May you find your peace on the other side. I love you Rick. 💔
