“ I remember Roger from 35 to 40 years ago as me and my sisters were kids. He and His wife who passed, my dad cousin, would come to our house or we would go to their house and have the best times. He was hilarious. Always joking, making ya laugh. Ya just never knew what he was gonna say or do next. When his wife Sheila died I really didn't know if he'd get over it. I wasn't around Roger anymore as I grew up as much as the rest of the family. But I knew she had been his one and only for so long it just couldn't be easy and would only grow more depressing with time. She was his everything.

THEN CAME BELVA. SHE SHINED A LIGHT ON HIM. SHE SHOWED HIM THAT IT WAS OK TO LOVE AGAIN. THAT JUST BECAUSE YOU MOVE ON DIDN'T MEAN YOU HAVE TO FORGET THAT PERSON OR ACT LIKE THEY NEVER EXISTED. SHE SHOWED HIM COMPANIONSHIP, CARE, TRUST, THE WILL TO CONTINUE ON AND TO LOVE AGAIN AND THAT'S EXACTLY WHAT HE DID. SHE BROUGHT THAT LIGHT OUT IN HIM THAT HE'D KEPT HIDDEN FOR SO LONG. SHE OPENED THAT DOOR TO LOVE AND THE DESIRE TO BE CLOSE TO SOMEONE ELSE THAT HE'D KEPT CLOSED UP FOR SO LONG. WE THANK YOU BELVA FOR TAKING OVER AND LIFTING HIM UP THROUGH THE TOUGHEST TIME IN HIS LIFE AND MAKING HIM HAPPY ONCE AGAIN.

WE LOVE YOU ROGER. WE WILL MISS YOUR JOKES, YOUR SILLY LAUGHTER, GOOFY SMILE AND THE MYSTERY OF NEVER KNOWING WHAT'S COMING NEXT. YOU WERE A MYSTERY AT TIMES, AND JUST A PLAIN OLE GOOFBALL AT OTHERS BUT THAT'S WHAT YOU WERE LOVED FOR. MAY YOU REST FOREVER IN GODS LOVING ARMS. YOUR PAIN IS GONE, YOUR SUFFERING IS NO MORE. AND ALTHOUGH YOU WILL BE SADLY MISSED HERE ON EARTH, WE KNOW GOD HAS WONDERFUL PLANS FOR YOU IN HEAVEN. YOU ARE NOW WHERE YOU BELONG. REST IN ETERNAL PEACE UNTIL WE ALL MEET AGAIN. WE LOVE YOU.
