“ Shawnda means Daughter of God. She had a personality as a giver and very tender hearted. She was there for her parents and family always when they needed her. She is my baby sister. I remember her calling me Donnie because she was just learning to talk . The name she called me became my nick name. My heart is broken Shawn. If I could only tell you again how I love you little sis. . We had morning coffee together even though we were miles apart and I miss those times but we will enjoy the time when we meet again and you tell me how wonderful Heaven is..
