“ When I was little Vince was in the service. I remember riding with my dad to the airport to pick him up whenever he came home. I remember how excited I would get when the huge tire came in sight. I knew we would be at the airport in minutes. I was so excited. When he came walking in the terminal and we saw each other I'd run as fast as I could to him and he'd pick me up and squeeze me tight. There was one time I was outside playing hopscotch and I kept hearing a whistle. When I looked around I saw someone walking towards me about 3 blocks away carrying a duffle bag. As the figure got a little closer I realized it was Vince! He had hitchhiked from the airport to surprise our parents. I never ran so fast in my life to get to him! When he threw his duffle bag to scoop me up I was elated! I'll remember that embrace the rest of my life! Just a little girl hugging her big brother!

I have so many wonderful memories of times spent with Vincie. He was always so sweet to me even though he liked to tease me. One fun memory was when I was working the Hudson's Thanksgiving Day Parade in Detroit and Vince was on duty with DPD. We set up a signal so when the cameras were on he would move into their view to try and get on TV. Of course, he was so very handsome in his uniform. May you rest Eternally in God's peace Vince. Much love and prayers for Vince III, Vince's beautiful granddaughters and siblings.

“ My deepest and heartfelt condolences to Cousin Vince's immediate family, and his siblings, my cousins Fred, Maryann, Paul, Joe, John, and Carol. Cousin Vince was always nice to me and I remember him from my youth as nothing less than a gentleman, always making an effort to talk to me. Another thing: I could brag that my big cousin played football at Osborn High! God bless you all. Jim.
